(Note: Those who have earlier registered to help need not re-register.)

PROJECT FUNPACK BY CARITAS SINGAPORE YOUNG ADULTS

This is an initiative by Canossaville Children and Community Services to create opportunities for meaningful engagement of children under their care within their own households. Selected households will be given a new game each month (such as Jenga, Boggle, Uno, etc.) to provide a platform for families to bond and engage their children.

We will need volunteers from Feb to Aug 2022 as facilitators to teach the families how to play the games and also to check in with the families on a monthly basis. Training will be provided. Come and join us on this journey of enriching family bonds through game time!

MOVIE NIGHT - THE CHRISTMAS CANDLE

Friday January 21 8pm @ The Auditorium

The Christmas Candle is an uplifting movie that actually celebrates the true meaning of Christmas: the gift and love of Christ. The story follows the enchanting small English village called Gladbury where it is said that every 25 years an angel blesses a candle, a candle that would give one person in town a miracle from God.

Things take a surprising turn when a new Reverend arrives in Gladbury to teach them another way than just the Christmas candle: charity for their neighbours and good deeds. Maximum: 50 pax. Register using the link or QR code <https://forms.gle/gNc5w446qWmDEchZ9>

RED PACKETS FOR 2022 - YEAR OF TIGER

This weekend, a set of red packets with the theme of "Blessings" will be distributed to every parishioner.

May the abundant blessings of God remain with us. Amen.
